

SANTA ARRIVES HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Three 1-Acts Will Be Given

What Eugene O'Neill, one of the greatest of American playwrights, considers his finest one-act play will be presented by the Sequoia Players this evening at 8 o'clock in the Sequoia High School Auditorium.

The play, "Where the Cross Is Made," is one of three being offered. The other two are "A Cup of Tea," a farce, and "Yes Means No," a comedy.

O'Neill's work, one of six early one-acts which sent him on his way to fame and his present station in the field of writing, is a tragedy, concerning the dreary existence of an old sea captain, utterly mad, who lives in his hut near the sea.

Director Claude E. Van Patten said particular attention has been given to the setting. The action takes place in the captain's hut, built to resemble the captain's quarters of an old sailing vessel.

Cast of the play includes Frank Thompson, Joe Triano, Ivering Heartsner and Mary Stowe. It is being directed by Julio Francescutti, now in the Stanford University drama school and a former Sequoia dramatist.

"Yes Means No," a comedy by

SEQUOIA'S 'CAT AND CANARY'

Paulette Goddard and Bob Hope huddle in fear, cornered by "The Cat"—fearsome beast of the bayous—in this scene from "The Cat and the Canary," which Paramount will present on Wednesday at the Sequoia Theater. John Beal, Douglas Montgomery, Gale Sondergaard and Elizabeth Patterson are featured in the mystery-thriller, peppered with gags and gasps. Identity of "The Cat" is one of the movie season's greatest puzzles. On the same program the Sequoia will offer Jackie Cooper in "What A Life," and the first Pontiac event.

Howard Rogers, has as its cast James O'Laughlin, William Reelick, Rosemary Bonnot and Rosemary Withgitt.

"A Cup of Tea," is being directed by Francis Hutchinson, who, like Francescutti, is an apprentice drama director. Players are Shirley Steele, Bill Vawter, Kay Brochiero and Morris Blackman.

Admission will be 10 cents for adults; five and 10 cents for high school students, and five cents for grammar school children.

Director Van Patten said the plays, more or less of an experiment, are to give the public an idea of what the Sequoia Players

Christmas Window Judging Scheduled For Next Week

Again this Yule season, as for many years past, Redwood City merchants are invited to participate in the contest for the Tribune's 14-inch trophy awarded annually to the business house having the best Christmas window.

Judging this year will be next Wednesday night, Dec. 6.

Originality, sales appeal, attractiveness, and other factors will be considered by the judges in awarding the trophy, which is now in possession of Downs' Bike and Sport Shop, 1938 winner. Should he win the cup again this year, he would become its permanent possessor, for he was the winner in 1936. It must be won three times to become the permanent possession of a store. In 1937 the trophy was won by the Redwood City Hardware Co.

BASEBALL FIELD WORK TO BEGIN IN NEAR FUTURE

Assurance that Redwood City will have a new baseball field for the 1940 Summer season was given Tuesday by the city recreation commission, when it decided in a special meeting that work should begin shortly on the tentative recreation center site between Bay Rd. and Bayshore Hwy. southeast of Chestnut St.

Acquisition of the property by the city has not been completed, pending the result of a court action in Los Angeles over the estate of Michael O'Dea involving the area. Until then work cannot start, City Manager C. L. Dimmitt said, but he expects the transaction to be completed and the property in the city's hands by the first of the year.

Heretofore only suitable hardball field in the city has been that at Sequoia High School. Limited provisions for spectators have been available at that field, but long-range plans for the city field call for spacious grandstands and a fully-equipped turf diamond.

Construction costs will be borne by the recreation center fund, which amounts to about $1000 at the present time, Director Alfred Morton said. This includes the "nickel-a-week" fund, proceeds from benefits, and funds realized last Spring at the pre-exposition celebration and queen contest held here.

Other developments in the 20-acre site will follow as soon as funds become available. The building program is not expected to be completed for many years, since an ambitious plan calling for a swimming pool, tennis courts, clubhouse, gymnasium and numerous other facilities is being developed.

Last night's meeting was called particularly to authorize a start on the center, as soon as acquisition of the property by the city is complete. Any further delay might make the completion of a baseball field impossible by the 1940 season, members agreed.

Band To Present Concert at Gala Affair Saturday

The Redwood City Municipal Band will play for the annual Christmas Party Saturday evening. It was announced today by W. E. Ayer, chairman of the party committee for the retail merchants' committee of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce.

The party will be held in front of the courthouse on Broadway at 7 p.m. Two thousand sacks of candy will be given away to children of the community by Santa Claus himself.

The band will march from the city hall to Broadway and El Camino Real, and then down Broadway to the party scene, Ayer said.

Just as the party starts, the Christmas season lights strung along Broadway and Main St. will be turned on. Members of the city electrical department under the direction of Mark E. Ryan have been working on the light installation for a week, and will be finished with the task tomorrow.

Colorful placards have been placed on electroliners bordering Broadway and Main St. by fire department employees, to add to the city's holiday decoration. All the work has been arranged by the merchants' committee of the chamber of commerce, which helped to purchase the $2700 lighting system and electroliner placards. W. D. Ryan is chairman of the merchants' committee.

Jury Acquits Barber On Medical Charges

MENLO PARK, Nov. 29—After 20 minutes' deliberation, a jury sitting in Menlo Park City Hall yesterday acquitted John B. Thornhill, Menlo Park barber, on a charge of prescribing medicine without a license. Thornhill's case was tried before Judge Edward I. McAuliffe of Redwood City.

'BEAU GESTE' AT REDWOOD

A brutal Foreign Legion sergeant lies with a bayonet through his heart because he tried to wrest a valuable gem from one of the gallant brothers "Geste." Gary Cooper and Ray Milland, as "Beau" and "John Geste" dispose of the sergeant, Brian Donlevy, in this scene from the new "Beau Geste" which Paramount will present on Sunday at the Redwood Theater. Sharing the program with plenty of gags and laughs, is America's favorite comedy team in an all new laugh riot, "Night Work."

2 Injured, 1 Jailed In Corner Smashup

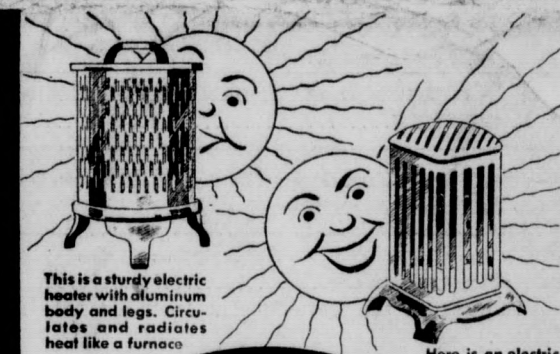

Two persons were seriously injured and a third was arrested on Tuesday as the result of an automobile accident at Bayshore Hwy. and Chestnut St., Redwood City.

Cars driven by M. A. Jones, 65, 1814 Middlefield Rd., Redwood City, a plasterer, and Henry L. Gibbs, 57, Watsonville, collided. Jones was jailed on a charge of felony drunk driving involving personal injury. Police records show he was arrested on a drunk driving charge Sept. 7, 1937.

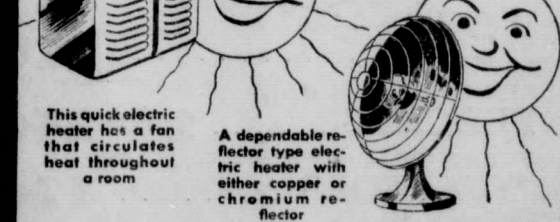

Injured were Mrs. Mabel Meade, 69, of Auburn, Wash., who suffered a possible cheek-bone fracture, and Donald Gibbs, 18, Watsonville, who suffered a severe scalp cut and possible skull fracture. Both were taken to Mills Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Meade, Gibbs' mother-in-law, was en route to her home with the boy after a vacation in Watsonville.

Innovation Is Scheduled

First major public dramatic effort of the year will be produced by the Sequoia Players this evening in the high school auditorium when they present three one-act plays.

An innovation this year, the purpose of the three one-acts, instead of the usual three-act production, is to give the audience a picture of what the Sequoia High School Dramatics Department, under Director Claude E. Van Patten, is accomplishing. The three plays were selected as the best offered in this Fall's workshop schedule. They are "Yes Means No," a comedy, by Howard Rogers; "A Cup of Tea," a farce, by Florence Ryerson, and "Where the Cross Is Made," a tragedy, by Eugene O'Neill.

University dramatics majors, Francis Hutchinson and Julio Francescutti, both ex-Sequoians and active in dramatics when in high school, are directing the Ryerson and O'Neill plays, respectively.

Members of the casts: "Yes Means No"—Norma Willard, student director; Marian Murad and Stuart Jackson, staff managers; William Rehlich, James O'Laughlin, Stuart Jackson, Rosemary Bonnot and Rosemarie Withgitt, members of the cast.

"A Cup of Tea"—Patricia Neilson, student director; Helen Falk, manager; Shirley Steele, Bill Vawter, Kay Brochiero and Morris Blackman, cast members. "Where the Cross Is Made"—Elizabeth Hubner, student director; Barbara Miller and Frank Thompson, managers; Mary Stowe, Joe Triano, Irving Heatsner, and Frank Thompson, cast members.

In charge of the staging of the three plays are Frank Thompson, general manager; Wanda Jacobsen, publicity; Lucille Farrell, photography; June Coy, personnel management; Elizabeth Hubner, costume manager.

BAND ACCEPTS INVITATION TO AID GRID TILT

For the second consecutive year a Redwood City musical organization has been accorded the honor to participate in the annual New Year's Day Shrine's East-West football game in Kezar Stadium.

The Sequoia High School band, under the direction of Max Gelber, will participate in the parade preceding the game, and in the mass playing of the bands.

On Jan. 1 of this year the Redwood City Municipal Band was one of the several organizations to take part in the crippled children's benefit.

Gelber said he also has been invited by the University of Southern California to be guest conductor at a state-wide band and orchestra clinic on Dec. 29 and 30.

Double Honor Given To Fire Chief Cuff

MENLO PARK, Nov. 28.—Thomas Cuff, chief of the Menlo Park fire department, has been notified of his appointment on a committee organized to study the question of transportation of inflammable liquids through streets and to submit suggested regulations to an Interstate Commerce Commission committee now working on such regulations.

Chief Cuff also has been appointed state vice president of the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

Members of the two classes of Ronald Anderson will go to San Francisco Junior College where they will be guests at an entertainment and dinner given by members of the course in hotel and restaurant management at the junior college.

The course at San Francisco Junior College in this field is the only one in the West and one of two in the United States, Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., offering a similar course. Anderson said the junior college has placed every member which has gone into this particular field.

Next Wednesday, Dec. 6, Cecil Cole, agent for one of the largest trucking firms in the West, will bring a diesel truck and trailer and have a driver and technician demonstrate and explain the mechanics of the vehicle to the class.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

MRS. NOLTE DIES
MENLO PARK.—Mrs. Charles B. Nolte, whom many remember as Miss May C. Walker of Woodside, died last week at her Oakland home after a long illness. She was about 54.

Her parents, the late Eugene Walker and Nancy Little, came of pioneer Redwood City families: Sylvester Walker and the Boyd Little family, the latter being best known in the Thomas Shine family of Woodside.

Married in Redwood City in 1883, Eugene Walker established a home at Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo County, upon land already claimed by earlier settlers under squatters' rights.

In 1886 when their daughter, May, was about a year old, these squatters shot the Walkers—the father dying at once, but the mother lingered for eight months in the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Shine in Woodside.

The unfortunates were arrested and lynched a few days later by their enraged neighbors. The child was reared as a daughter of the Shine household in Woodside and in 1923 while still living with her aunt in Palo Alto, she married Charles B. Nolte of Oakland.

Mrs. Nolte's only immediate relative is her husband. There were no children.

A requiem mass was sung last Monday at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Oakland, and the interment took place at Holy Cross Cemetery, Menlo Park.

Mrs. Nolte, by her sunny, Christian life, her loving devotion to her husband and family and friends, endeared herself to all who met and knew her. She will be missed by a large circle of friends and relatives.

Eugene Walker learned the printer's trade in the office of the Times-Gazette in the 80's. He assisted in the editing and printing of the first history of San Mateo County. Many of the bonds are still extant. Those learning the trade at that time, in the office, were J. V. Swift, William Dillon, John Nash and Maurice Woodhams, all of whom have passed away.

J. B. Thornhill was acquitted before a jury in Judge Ryan's court Tuesday after a four-minute deliberation. The doctor was accused of practicing without a license. The doctor committed no crime, but simply gave advice to a friend. Mr. Thornhill is an expert masseur and enjoys a large business. He has given relief to hundreds.

The duck season closes next week to the displeasure of hunters. Owing to the fine weather and lack of snow in the northern regions the season was a poor one. Only a few limits were obtained.

Sunday morning in the Palo Alto Hospital a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Morey. The new arrival makes a two-some, both boys. The popular postmaster is very proud of the youngsters.

Work of demolishing the old residence at the Church of the Nativity will start next week. It was erected in 1878 and the first occupant was Father Spreckels, a noted orator and scholar. The ancient structure is to be replaced by a modern two-story building to cost about $25,000.

The new gymnasium at St. Joseph's Parochial School will be finished next week, but will not be dedicated for some time. The building is modern in every way and a credit to the school. It will cost about $6000. Weeden Brothers are the contractors and they have done a good job.

The rainfall for the season in Menlo Park has been one and one-half inches. The rain last week was .28 inch. This is the lowest precipitation in 20 years. Farmers are looking glum at the prospect for heavy crops next year, but hope the coming season will cause the skies to weep.

Six new homes were started this week in Stanford Park, and more buildings are contemplated. This section of Menlo Park is growing so rapidly that the few lots left are selling for fancy prices.

Arthur Wilkinson, in crossing the street near the Cash Grocery store, was struck by an automobile recently, but suffered only a few painful injuries.

The city council expects to move into the new city hall about the middle of December. Work is progressing on the interior in remodeling and creating four new apartments for the officials and a council chamber to seat 50 persons. The mezzanine floor will be used as the public library. When completed it will be one of the coziest meeting halls in the county.

On Thanksgiving day John B. Glunz entertained four generations of his family at a dinner at his home on Valparaiso Ave. His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren participated in the sumptuous meal. Mr. Glunz is the popular building inspector for the city of Menlo Park.

Work of demolishing the ancient mansion, nestled in a dense foliage on the Donahue estate on Ravenswood Ave., was begun last week. It was erected in the sixties and for years was one of the show places on the Peninsula. During the late war it was used as a hospital for the government in connection with Camp Fremont and has not been occupied since. Many years ago it was leased to Richard Burke, the Irish barrister, who came here shortly after his marriage to Mamie Donahue, the San Francisco heiress. The barrister left Menlo Park for his old home in Ireland to enjoy his years in a vast estate left to him by his family. In other days the old home was the scene of many gay parties and numerous celebrities of bygone days were entertained there.

James D. O'Kane, local capitalist, left this week for San Francisco to reside for some months at the Olympic Club. His home here will be occupied by Father McKeon during the construction of the new parochial residence.

Little Robin Red Breast made his appearance in Menlo Park last week. The farmer always considered the advent of the robin a harbinger of rain. As rain in this section was long past due, it is hoped the coming of the song bird will cause Jupiter Pluvius to shed his accustomed tears.

Local hunters have met with little success these days owing to the fine weather. There have been only a few flights of ducks to the marshes and a big shortage of geese. The pheasants also were scarce. Perhaps not more than a half dozen were taken during the six day season that closed recently. Hunting in San Mateo County is a thing of the past, though at one time it was a big game center.

Isabelle W. Lindquist, 26th District American Legion chairman of hospital entertainment, presented the following program to the patients at the Palo Alto Veterans' Facility last week:

Beaudoin Studio Specialty numbers: song, "Man With the Mandolin" by Carole Lazzareschi; Luida Guzzione, "Are You Having Any Fun?"; Jane Smith, acrobatics; "Feudin' Folks," two hill-billies, Mary Helen Smith and Marion Kirk; tambourine dance, Carole Lazzareschi and Beverly Chambers; Russian dance, Jane Smith and Jean Oliver; song and dance, Beverly Bartholome; novelty skit, "Back from Hollywood," by Margaret Morgan; Mae West, Carole Lazzareschi and Beverly Chambers; song and dance, "God Bless America," Bobby Stebbins.

The Olmstead Studio presented the marvelous Ormand McGill in feats of magic. The orchestra, including Pauline Sperry, piano; Ella Stroka, Shirley Smith, Jack Morell and Gilbert Jost, accordion, and Helen Todd, saxophone, gave 15 minutes of swing music. Pauline Sperry acted as mistress

6-Month Trip Due for Group

Christmas in Miami!

That is the goal of two of Redwood City's junior mariners and their skipper, Capt. L. F. Bosshardt, and Mrs. Bosshardt.

The mariners, DeWolf Ross of San Carlos and James McFadden of Palo Alto, and the Bosshardts were taking their anti-typhoid "shots" and being vaccinated for smallpox Tuesday in anticipation of a start by the middle of December for the East where they will board the gaff topsail schooner "White Cloud" to bring it back to Redwood City.

On the way, however, they will lie over for perhaps two months in Miami, Fla., making cruises

For the past several weeks, Captain Bosshardt has been on the faculty of Santa Clara University, teaching aerial navigation, or "aviation," meteorology, history of aviation and radio to a class of students enrolled in the aviation course. His work there will be finished about Dec. 8.

On the journey from the East, the "White Cloud" will fly Sequoia Yacht Club and Redwood City banners, bringing this community publicity. Captain Bosshardt said. Dr. Rebec may join the group at Miami for the return trip.

HOME BRINGS $29,000

The Haus estate on Selby Lane, Atherton, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haas of San Francisco, according to a deed recorded at request of San Mateo County Title Co. Mrs. Carolina Haus sold the old home and 2.53 acres for $29,000.

Dr. Rebec may join the group at Miami for the return trip.

Lunar Rainbows Viewed Here

Inconceivable Stanford supporters who after Saturday's Big Game were about as dejected as a dog which has just been whipped for upsetting a vase of flowers on a front room rug might take solace from a symbol which appeared over the south end of the Peninsula shortly after the end of the debacle which brought about a 32-14 victory for the Bears from Berkeley.

That was a beautiful lunar rainbow. And since rainbows are supposed to herald the end of storms, Stanfordites were thinking (wistfully, of course) that maybe it meant the end of storms on the Farm which originate in the East Bay.

Anyhow, there was a rainbow after dark Saturday evening which created considerable excitement in the regions where it was visible. Residents of the Woodside district in particular were agape at the phenomenon, for they said that the "pot of gold" appeared to be right in the heart of their community. The other end of the brilliant spectacle was toward the Spring Valley Lakes.

Residents of Redwood City also saw the unusual sight, which followed afternoon showers and occurred in the light of a full moon.

Hillsborough Dentist's Mother Passes Away

Mrs. Hannah E. Bell of San Francisco, mother of Dr. Dickson Bell of Hillsborough, died at a rest home in Menlo Park Saturday.

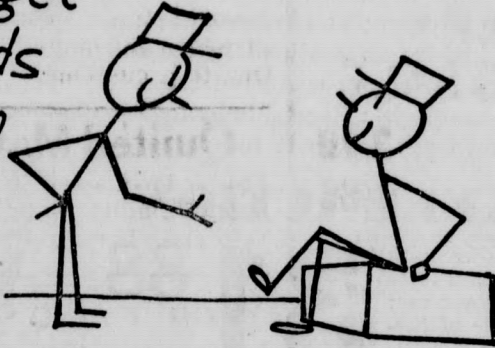

GEORGE ASKS ABOUT 'EM OVER FORTY

Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

There's a lot of talk these days about how hard it is for a man over 40 to get or hold a job. How about this with YOUR company?

GEORGE CITIZEN

I don't feel I'm going to get the skids
here when I get a little older

LIFE AT J-M NEED NOT END AT 40

Dear
George

That's a good question and I'm glad you asked it. Now I'll tell you how much my company thinks of all its jobholders in general, and of those over 40 in particular.

The president of my company has made the statement several times that if an earthquake or cyclone were to wipe out all our buildings and tools, J-M could replace these and get along all right, but that if we were to lose the skill and experience of the 10,000 men and women who operate this company, we would have to close up shop.

In other words, we think that the most important things in the success of business today are human energy, human ingenuity and human experience.

What does that mean about men over 40? It means that their greater experience and mature minds make them just as valuable to the business as the younger folks who may have a little more zip and a few more years of productive service ahead of them.

So—my company adopted a policy a few years ago of taking on as many men over 40 as possible. And that is the way we operate today.

Some people will be surprised to hear of this—people who think that big businesses are kicking out everybody over 40 these days.

My company is proud of the men who have worked for it for many years. In its ranks are nearly 350 who have been there for 25 years or more, and their total of experience amounts to more than 11,500 years!

These men belong to an honorary organization called the J-M Quarter Century Club.

Jobholders are sometimes pictured these days with "itchy feet" but the J-M Quarter Century Club is one example of a group of men who like their work, and who haven't jumped around and haven't been "let out." And they are only a part of those "men over forty" in Johns-Manville whose experience and maturity contribute so much to our success.

Apartment House Periled by Blaze Started by Iron

Damage estimated at $500 occurred to rooms and furnishings of the Albert A. Allis apartment in the Jansing Apts., Broadway and Duane St., in a fire caused by an overheated electric iron left standing on an ironing board Monday afternoon.

Three alarms were sounded, the first shortly before 3:30 p.m., but firemen discovered the fire had not progressed very far in the locked apartment. Asst. Fire Chief Joe Lodi said that only 25 gallons of water were used to extinguish the flames, but smoke had flooded the apartment and caused extensive damage.

Mrs. Marie Buschke, operator of the apartment building, in commending the fire department for its efficiency, said the "entire apartment might have been burned" had firemen not worked so quickly.

The electric iron was left on a folding wall ironing board in the kitchen, and when firemen broke into the apartment the entire section of the wall supporting the board was burning, Lodi said. Clouds of smoke that filled all rooms caused most of the damage. Mrs. Buschke estimated cost of replacing furniture, repainting and other repairs would be at least $500.

MASHED SWEET POTATOES
Mashed sweet potatoes are good—peel and cook until tender, then mash, add a little brown sugar, salt, pepper and lots of butter.

Lounging Quarters Arranged for Firemen

New lounging quarters for Redwood City's regular firemen are being constructed in the rear, mezzanine floor of the central firehouse, and will include in addition to a leisure room a small kitchen and lavatory, Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan revealed.

The room on the mezzanine floor long has been used by firemen as a bedroom, but it is being enlarged and improved, at an estimated expense of $500. Work is expected to be completed within two weeks.

Miss Hopkins' Lawyer To Defy Ban on Kennels

A court battle which may involve Stanford University and the exclusive Family Farm on Portola Rd. near Woodside was in prospect here as Atty. Joseph J. Bullock, representing Miss Lydia Hopkins, defied an order of the county planning commission to move her dog kennels.

The supervisors on Tuesday morning affirmed the order of the planning commission over Bullock's protests. He asked for a two-week delay to present "facts." He asserted that Stanford University, owner of land on both sides of Miss Hopkins' property, had become interested in the case, and that he understood the Family Farm, one of the original objectors to the kennels, would withdraw its objection.

$100,000 INVESTED

Miss Hopkins, daughter of the late Timothy A. Hopkins, millionaire philanthropist and Stanford benefactor, established her kennels in 1937 after securing a land use permit from the planning commission. She claims to have invested in excess of $100,000 in her property, home and kennels.

In September, 15 neighbors led by F. W. Cooke, general manager of the National Ice Co., petitioned the commission to revoke the permit on grounds that the barking of the dogs destroyed the "peace and comfort" of their homes. A formal hearing was conducted Oct. 27. On Nov. 10 the commission revoked the permit.

Atty. W. H. Morrissey, representing the petitioners, argued against further delay in removing what he termed a nuisance.

After the supervisors upheld the planning commission, Bullock met Morrissey in the hall. "You can go to H— before we'll move," he declared. Asked if he intended to take the case to court, Bullock replied that he would ignore the board's order.

VALUE DISPUTED

Planning Adviser Ronald Campbell estimated that Miss Hopkins kennels were worth about $2000, and that the value of her property and home would not be lost by the order. He announced he had written a letter to Miss Hopkins Nov. 13 suggesting that she move the dogs within three weeks. He said he would inspect the property next week, and if the dogs were still there he would so report to the planning commission. The commission would probably then request the supervisors to instruct the district attorney to take necessary legal procedure to move the kennels.

Violation of a planning ordinance is a misdemeanor, Campbell said.

Bullock argued that Miss Hopkins acted in good faith when she secured the permit before constructing the kennels. He contended the objections originated with Mr. and Mrs. Cooke.

CLAIMS TERMS VIOLATED Morrissey countered that the terms of the permit had been violated, the permit stating that no use detrimental to convenience or comfort was intended. He added that Miss Hopkins did not have the necessary kennel permit from the supervisors.

Other transactions of the board:

Referred to Sheriff James J. McGrath the request of Millbrae Taxpayers Association that a special deputy sheriff be stationed in Millbrae.

Adopted a map approving three property zones between the north limits of Burlingame and the San Francisco line: (1) industrial east of Bayshore Hwy., (2) commercial on El Camino and Bayshore Hwy. frontages, and (3) residential between El Camino Real and Bayshore Hwy. The maps exclude incorporated South San Francisco. Next step, Campbell announced, will be to zone property between El Camino Real and Skyline Blvd., hearings on which are now being conducted.

Abandoned a portion of the old Pescadero Creek Rd. Appropriated $600 from unbudgeted reserve for carpenter work in the courthouse necessary to alter the old county library quarters for the county clerk's election department. The old election department quarters will be occupied by a WPA office.

The board adjourned to 2 p.m.

In 1900 only one person in 10 had a life insurance policy. Now every other American has one.

Youth Denied Right To Drive

Anthony R. Cain, Santa Clara student who hurried from a San Francisco dance Nov. 4 en route to Monte Vista at 80 miles an hour, Tuesday was forbidden to drive an automobile for 30 days. The sentence was imposed by Judge E. I. McAuliffe.

Survivor in Redwood City is his widow, Mrs. Emma Mauritz.

Cain was arrested by State Highway Patrol Sgt. Manfred Walzberg.

Other patrol cases: Eugene Vernon, San Francisco, and Robert L. French, Palo Alto, charged with speeding 75 miles an hour, fined $15 each.

Allen J. Close, San Jose, and Charles Campbell, San Francisco, speeding 60, fined $5 each.

Edna Carter, San Jose, Edwin M. Baron and Charles Mason, San Francisco, speeding, $250 each.

Robert Hay and Walter E. Sullivan, Redwood City, and Bertha K. Elmer, Mountain View, failure to stop at an arterial, $1 each.

In city court, Judge McAuliffe fined the following $250 each for speeding: Andrew F. Versey, Glen Shields, Arthur N. White, Noel F. Koeman, Manuel Delgado, L. W. Clopton, D. H. Riggs, and Frank Ramos.

George Notley paid $250 for passing a signal, George F. Ruby $1 for passing a stop sign, and Thomas F. McTigue $1 for turning in the middle of a block. Gordon Slade, former big league baseball player, withdrew his plea of not guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated. A fine of $100 was levied, $50 of which was suspended.

200 Attend Dedication Of Church Addition

With some 200 persons in attendance at the morning services, and about a like number in the evening, the First Baptist Church on Sunday dedicated its new seven-room Sunday school classroom addition, located at the corner of James Ave. and Hudson St., Redwood City.

The Quiet Moments Gospel Singers aided in the services, at which Dr. Theron M. Chastain, director of evangelical and Christian education for the Baptist churches, was speaker.

Construction Begins On P. A. Underpass

PALO ALTO, Nov. 27.—Work began in earnest this morning on the University Ave. railroad underpass project. In charge of the job for Paul Tyler, contractor, is Grant L. Miner of Palo Alto. Two additional carloads of machinery arrived, making three in all, while five men started operations. Two carpenters are engaged in building the state engineer's office on the north side of the plaza and three laborers are removing the irrigation system in the lawns.

Narcotics Charge Results in Arrest Of Colma Woman

Mrs. Lillian Herald, woman of many aliases, former owner of the Highway Inn at Colma and two-time loser on narcotics charges, was free on bail today after state narcotic division agents arrested her for the third time Tuesday. She was booked with Charles Walton, 45, Negro, at the Daly City jail on a charge of transporting morphine. Bail was set at $1000.

According to Paul Madden, narcotics division chief, Mrs. Herald, also known as Lillian Moore, Lillian Boni and Lillian Bonasetti, was traced through a sale made by Walton to an agent. Walton was traced to Mrs. Herald's home at 150 West Moltke St., Daly City.

Madden said she spotted the agents when Walton left, placed him in her car and sped madly away to avoid arrest. She was captured and several containers of morphine were found in the car, Madden said.

Mrs. Herald was arrested in 1936 in San Francisco on a possession charge, and again in Colma in 1938 for transportation and sale. She was admitted to probation for three years on condition she serve 90 days in jail, none of which was served because the jail term was later suspended.

Walton is under bail for a narcotics charge in San Francisco, Madden said.

POPULATION, BUSINESS BOTH SHOW GROWTH ON PENINSULA

Population and business both are growing rapidly on the Peninsula, according to a survey recently made by San Francisco Peninsula Inc., the community advertising organization formed to publicize advantages of this area.

In line with the heavy expansion in home building in San Mateo County during 1939, gas and electric connections are averaging more per month than at any time since 1938, according to statistics furnished by P. G. & E.

For the first 10 months of 1939, 1965 electric and 1301 gas installations were completed, an average gain per month over the corresponding months of 1938 of more than 13 per cent.

"Inasmuch as only one gas or electric connection is recorded, even though serving a multiple-family dwelling," explains Sam H. Winkler, director and chairman of the advertising committee of SFPI, "it can readily be seen that the number of new families throughout the Peninsula using utility services is naturally greater than this impressive total of new connections made during 1939.

"Could better evidence be offered of the success of SFPI's promotional activity?"

Despite the attraction of the San Francisco World's Fair which acted as a magnet for California dollars, Peninsula residents spent substantially more in Peninsula retail stores during the months of January through August in 1939 than in a similar period in 1938, according to U. S. Department of Commerce reports.

"Although San Francisco, the 'hometown' of the Fair, shows a 5.6 per cent average monthly gain for this period of 1939 over 1938," states J. P. Crown, director and treasurer of SFPI, "Redwood City established a 10.9 per cent gain and Palo Alto rang cash registers to total a 7.1 per cent increase.

"In contrast to Alameda, a typical Bay Area city, the San Mateo-Burlingame area registered a one-third greater increase. Naturally, much of this gain in retail store volume must be ascribed to the influx of new families to the Peninsula during 1939. These new residents are quick to discover—as pointed out in all SFPI advertising—that Peninsula stores offer every necessity and luxury at prices suitable to any budget."

Emerald Lake Officer Paid

Two hundred forty-nine property agreements, whereby old age relief clients agree to offer their meager estates as security to the county for any moneys advanced, today bore approval of the board of supervisors. The long list was read by Social Service Supt. Adrian Ward at Tuesday afternoon's board session.

Ward explained that the agreements, which make the county a claimant against any relief client's estate, were required by the State Board of Social Welfare under recently adopted legislation.

Supervisor Fred E. Beer characterized the relief situation as a "mess" of conflicting regulations that would probably be cleaned up at a special session of the state legislature. He disclosed that county supervisors throughout the state had demanded that Governor Olson include the relief problem in his call for the session.

Complying with Law

In accepting the agreements, he pointed out, the county is solving nothing with finality but was merely complying with state law.

Ward said the legislation was enacted primarily to protect the county from those heirs of needy persons who refuse to contribute to their support during their lifetime, yet inherit their entire estates. The agreements provide that the county is a creditor only to the extent of the actual amount advanced.

Under a former law, since repealed, old age relief beneficiaries were required to deed their real properties to the county.

To Pay Warrants

The board authorized appropriation of $433,800 from unappropriated tax collections on Dec. 5 to the fund to pay $600,000 in tax anticipation warrants outstanding and due on that date. Treasurer A. H. Sagehorn informed the board it would be impossible to apportion taxes in time to meet the payment. The board also appropriated $1109.92 to meet interest charges on the tax warrants.

Six hundred dollars was appropriated from reserve to the Emerald Lake Police District to contribute to the policeman's salary until such time as the district collects taxes in 1940-41. County Clerk W. H. Augustus explained that the $600 would be repaid by those residents of Emerald Lake now contributing $100 monthly toward the salary.

Petition of Brisbane and Palomar Park residents for additional street work was refused by County Engineer M. A. Grant because all moneys budgeted for road improvements in those areas had been expended. Palomar Dr. Extension was being maintained in the same condition as it was when it was accepted, Grant reported, and Alta Rd. in Palomar Park had never been made part of the county road system.

Middlefield Arterial

On Grant's recommendation, Middlefield Rd. was made an arterial highway. The board

AN ANGEL STEALS THE SHOW

Unprecedented in screen history, two popular Hollywood screen stars, Linda Darnell and Tyrone Power, yield the center of the stage to a newcomer—the 1939 Christmas Seal. Explaining this unheard of phenomenon, Miss Darnell says that "no actor or actress would attempt to compete against an angel of such rare beauty as the one which the noted artist Rockwell Kent designed for this year's Christmas Seal." In Power's opinion, "everyone will surely be more than eager to use this attractive seal on all holiday letters and packages and make possible the important work which the tuberculosis associations in California do in guarding the health of us all."

Walden Heads 'Americanism' City Planners Practice Urged

BELMONT, Nov. 28—Appointment of Harry P. Walden to the city planning commission by the city council to succeed newly-appointed Postmaster Frank O'Brien, resigned, last night was followed by Walden's election to the chairmanship of the commission at a special meeting following the council gathering.

Other members of the commission are C. G. Schoof, Joseph Belatti, Jack Kidd, H. E. Williams and William F. Findley.

The city council ordered a study of bicycle ordinances in other Peninsula cities, following complaint of Victoria Roussel, of the Belmont Woman's Club that children are riding their bicycles carelessly on sidewalks and at night without lights, endangering themselves and pedestrians.

An ordinance for Belmont will be drawn up following the study of the other cities' ordinances. Redwood City's method of licensing bicycles also will be considered.

The use of snuff increases. The U. S. consumption of snuff in 1938 was 32 times that of 1870.

ordered the necessary road signs installed.

Recommendation of the planning commission that a trailer camp permit be issued to James Bennetts at Brisbane was approved provided he surround the camp with an 8-foot board fence. The board accepted the offer of the commission to submit a revised trailer camp ordinance.

Supervisor John W. Poole was delegated to attend a special meeting of the Traffic Safety Commission Friday to hear Fred Parr and Franklin Downey, representatives of the California Safety Council, explain the merits of the statewide safety organization.

Coroner Jury Lays Crash to Crawford

In San Jose Tuesday a coroner's jury attributed the death of Miss Emma Bundy, 71, in an automobile accident at Mountain View Thanksgiving Day, to the allegedly negligent driving of Wallace Crawford, 48, retired army major and resident of Menlo Park.

A witness, A. W. Swenson of San Francisco, related that Major Crawford swung past his machine, then executed an "S" ahead of him, crashing nearly head-on into an automobile driven by Miss Merle A. Bundy, Los Gatos, sister of the deceased.

State Patrolman R. J. Byers testified that Major Crawford admitted having had a "few drinks," and said a physician in Mountain View examined the former army officer and pronounced him intoxicated.

County's Control Of Trichinosis Hit By Albany Woman

California is the black spot of the nation so far as trichinosis control is concerned, and in this state San Mateo County has the next to poorest record, Mrs. Kaethe Zahn of Albany told members of the San Mateo County Health Alliance at a closed meeting Tuesday at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

Mrs. Zahn, whose one-woman fight against trichinosis has won state and national attention, the alliance reported, urged state laws compelling sterilization of garbage fed to hogs and the freezing of the meat of slaughtered hogs at 5 degrees Fahrenheit for 20 days.

already have such laws protecting the consumer, trichinosis is almost unknown, Mrs. Zahn said, while 25 per cent of the people of California are suffering from the painful disease. She said she took this figure from the United States Public Health Report No. 53, Vol. 26, of last July 1.

Only San Francisco County has a poorer record than San Mateo County for trichinosis control, Mrs. Zahn declared.

Meanwhile the alliance, which has been a determined foe of County Health Director Charles C. Gans, issued a bulletin on "How to Have Better Health in San Mateo County." The bulletin urges adoption here of the health district plan; appointment of a "county health officer who shall possess not less than the minimum qualifications prescribed for health officers by the Conference of State and Territorial Health Officers"; and otherwise reiterates the recommendations made by the USPHS survey of this county.

The bulletin asks citizens to support the alliance "in this most vital problem."

NATIONAL PROGRAM URGED; COUNTY RECORD UPHELD

Dr. C. C. Gans, county health director, proposes a national program to combat trichinosis. The job is too big for any state or county, he said.

He cited State Department of Public Health statistics to show that in 12 years there have been only 17 cases of trichinosis in San Mateo County. In 16 years there have been but four cases in the Community Hospital, only one of which resulted fatally, that 11 years ago.

He disclosed that he is co-

Mrs. Marion J. Bullivant of Palo Alto, sister of Mrs. C. A. Buck, Redwood City, wife of Burlingame councilman and county planning commissioner, died yesterday after an extended illness. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Roller & Hapgood Chapel, Palo Alto.

Moral Rearmament Days This Weekend

Preparations are being made throughout the Bay area to celebrate Dec. 1, 2, and 3 as Moral Rearmament days. Civic, business and social leaders are calling for a national and world mobilization for "100 million listening"—and a call to enlist in the fight for a fear-free, hate-free, greed-free world.

Mayor Rossi of San Francisco has issued a proclamation urging "all our citizens, in their homes and organizations, through press, radio and all suitable means, to learn how they may play their part in the moral re-armament of our City, State and Nation."

A prominent feature of the weekend will be local, national and world radio broadcasts. Listening parties are being arranged.
